

Free Student Services Available to You
Updated Fall 2003

1. Tutoring: Free tutors are available to help you study for this course. They are available in the Academic Assistance Center at all three CCCC campuses.
2. Career Center: Study career opportunities, create an up-to-date resume and do job searches in the Career Center located in the Student Center of the Sanford campus. Hours posted on the door. At the Chatham and Harnett campuses, see the Student Development Services representative.
3. Counseling: Academic counseling and some counseling with minor life adjustment problems are available in the Student Development Office at all three CCCC campuses.
4. Student Activities: See the Student Activities Director in the Student Center on the Sanford campus or the Student Development Services representative at the Chatham and Harnett campuses. (sports, SGA, activity days, contests, etc.)
5. Library Services: The library is open at least five days a week on all three campuses. The Library Staff can help you with all types of research. Just ask at the library desk for assistance. Hours of operation may vary by campus, so check with your campus library.
6. Students with disabilities: Make an appointment to see our Special Populations Coordinator. The coordinator's office is in Student Development Services at the Sanford campus. Call 919-718-7273 or 1-800-682-8353, ext. 273, for more information or an appointment.
7. Financial Aid: The Financial Aid Office is located in Student Development on the Sanford Campus. See the Student Development representative at Harnett and Chatham for assistance.
8. Open Computer Lab: Computers are available in the Academic Assistance Center to complete computer assignments, to practice course competencies, to access on-line distance education course materials and assignments, and to practice certification testing for select courses. Weekday and weekend hours are posted in the Academic Assistance Centers on all three campuses.
9. Listening Lab: Foreign language listening stations are available in the Academic Assistance Center on the Sanford Campus. Hours are posted.
